

Regional Policy Officer

Recfishwest, the peak body representing some 643,000 recreational fishers in Western Australia, requires the services of an exceptional, dynamic individual to take the role of Regional Policy Officer.

The Regional Policy Officer will be required to regularly travel to regional centres. The position reports to the Principal Policy Officer and the Recfishwest Board on the collective views and directions of regional recreational fishers, develops Recfishwest policies and prepares submissions.

If you want to be part of an organisation that gets the job done, contact Kane Moyle, Principal Policy Officer, Recfishwest for a job description and duty statement on 9246 3366 or email recfish@recfishwest.org.au or visit www.recfishwest.org.au.

Applications close 7 August.
